Blueprint for Improved Results for Students with Disabilities

Self-Advocacy
Students engage in self-advocacy and are involved in determining their own educational goals and plan.

Family Partnership
Parents, and other family members, are engaged as meaningful partners in the special education process and the education of their child.

Specially-Designed Instruction
Teachers design, provide, and assess the effectiveness of specially-designed instruction to provide students with disabilities with access to participate and progress in the general education curriculum.

Research-Based Instruction
Teachers provide research-based instructional teaching and learning strategies and supports for students with disabilities.

Multi-tiered Support
Schools provide multi-tiered systems of behavioral and academic support.

Inclusive Activities
Schools provide high-quality inclusive programs and activities.

Transition Support
Schools provide appropriate instruction for students with disabilities in career development and opportunities to participate in work-based learning.

MTSS-I

• The New York State Education Department’s (NYSED’S) Multi-Tiered System of Supports – Integrated (MTSS-I) Framework includes four components.

• Was developed in consideration of numerous existing frameworks.
MTSS...

• is a data-driven decision-making framework for:
  • increasing the effectiveness, efficiency, and equity of delivered instruction
  • rapidly identifying students being left behind
  • continuous improvement
  • implementing scientifically backed practices
MTSS Continued...

is not an educational fad.

• is supported by research going back over 40 years!
• is encouraged by federal law
• Is a common feature of highly successful schools and districts that “beat the odds”
MTSS...

is not an action leading to referral to special education.

• prevents "instructional casualties" by rapidly responding to problems as they occur
• supports students with existing disabilities and those at-risk.
• provides equitable and appropriate education to all students.
The Multi-Tiered Framework

Tier 1: School-/classroom-wide instruction for all students

Tier 2: Specialized group systems for students at-risk in a given area (e.g., literacy; math)

Tier 3: Individualized systems for students showing a significant instructional deficit

- Staff
- Parents
- Families

Exhibiting Target Performance
Beginning the Journey

• We begin MTSS implementation at Tier 1 because:
  • Nearly all students, including students with disabilities, spend most of their time in Tier 1.
  • High-quality Tier 1 instruction serves as both intervention and prevention.
  • It anchors more intensive intervention.
  • It aligns core concepts and lessons across classrooms and grades.

US Department of Education, 2020
Does MTSS work?

• Alignment with MTSS fundamentals (e.g., tiered systems; formative assessments) has been shown through high-quality experimental research to:

  ✓ Improve educational equity across students

    (e.g., Vellutino et al., 2006; Al Otaiba et al., 2014; Torgesen et al., 2009; VanDerHeyden et al., 2007)

  ✓ Optimize outcomes for students at-risk

    (e.g., Gettinger & Stoiber, 2007; Stecker et al., 2000; Vaughn et al., 2003; Wanzek et al., 2018)

The Importance of District Capacity in Implementing MTSS
The Role of District Leadership Quote

“Put a good practice in a bad system and the system wins, no contest”

(Michigan Technical Assistance Center, 2020)
The Role of District Leadership Considerations

• A given school can use the R-TFI to guide implementation of MTSS.

• But a district team is needed to:
  1. Consider assessment and instructional material that all schools in the district use (i.e., purchasing)
  2. Ensure consistency and make decisions where to invest in training
  3. Leverage their decision-making authority
  4. Advocate to the community
  5. Ensure institutional knowledge and archiving of key information

(Fixsen et al., 2013; Sugai & Horner, 2020)

Installation includes the following activities: identifying and contacting key stakeholders; scheduling necessary PDs; administering baseline assessments; holding initial meetings; and organizing and training relevant teams.
The District Implementation Team
The Role of District Leadership – Curriculum

• Curriculum and materials form a foundation for ALL tiers of service.

• A primary role of the district team is to review district-wide literacy assessment, curriculum and intervention programs for alignment with the evidence-base and appropriateness based on data.
The Role of District Leadership – Material Review

• A materials review process should use a formal procedure
  • Verify claims – Is a program/vendor in alignment with science/standards or just says so?
  • Are sample materials anchored in key literacy foundation (i.e., phonological awareness; phonics; vocabulary)?
  • Emphasize fluent reading?
  • Provide opportunities for training?
The Role of District Leadership

• Resource Allocation
  - Purchasing of screening and intervention materials
  - Investment in additional professional development
  - Compensation for leadership teams at district or school level

• Monitor Fidelity
  - School-level team meeting processes
  - R-TFI implementation
  - Screening and decision-making

• Advocacy
  - Communication with school implementors
  - Community members. Build buy-in for evidence-based practice
Membership of District Team

• The district team should be comprised of:
  ✓ District level leadership
  ✓ Representative school-level leadership
  ✓ Literacy and math content experts
    ✓ Including data expert(s)
  ✓ Diverse parent/community representation
  ✓ District Team Coordinator

• 5-10 people
• Should meet monthly
The Meeting Process

• Use the Team Initiated Problem Solving (TIPS) teaming process. This standardized meeting process will be explained in module 2.

• Bring de-identified school-level data for review
  • Aggregated curriculum-based measurement data from school/district selected vendor; standardized test scores; R-TFI data.

• Problem-solve identified issues with performance and fidelity implementation.
The Meeting Process

Fall
- Review R-TFI Data
- Review Fall Academic Data
- Review results of standard test scores
- Action Planning – Where, what and who? Where are the gaps?

Winter
- Review Winter Screening Data
- Assess changes made in Fall – Identify successes and areas in need of change

Spring
- Review Spring screening data
- Did changes made in winter work?
- Support administration of R-TFIs
- Consider homework over summer
The R-TFI as a Measure of MTSS Fidelity
The R-TFI as a Guiding Instrument

- A standardized tool that measures the fidelity of implementation to evidence-based literacy practices within a MTSS framework.
- Meant to inform action-planning.
- Completed by a school-level team but refers to actions at the district and grade level.
- The school team may use the R-TFI in whole (i.e., evaluate all tiers), but action planning should begin with Tier 1.
Why the R-TFI?

✓ Adopted by numerous local educational agencies and across several states.
✓ Demonstrated reliability and validity when used within a team context to drive efficient decision-making in schools
✓ Supported by free resources (e.g., data dashboard)
